

It's almost impossible for me to believe that in a democratic society, a company like Sinclair would have the audacity to force its affiliates to air partisan and propagandist programming, particularly before such an important election. This is an incredible abuse not only of power but of public airwaves, and it has to be stopped.